

Hiss Faces Chambers At Spy Hearing; Trial Looms

Washington, Aug. 25 (AP)—Alger Hiss and his accuser, Whitaker Chambers, confronted each other in the Congressional spy hearings today and were told that "certainly one will be 'tried for perjury.'"

The statement came from Chairman J. Parnell Thomas (R-N.J.) of the House Un-American Activities committee.

Slowly, solemnly, Thomas said: "As a result of these hearings certainly one of these witnesses will be tried for perjury. Perjury is lying when under oath to tell the truth. Conviction would carry a possible jail sentence."

Tells of Alias

Hiss, former State department official, and Chambers, now a senior editor of Time magazine, have told the committee widely varying stories. What Thomas' statement implied was this: The committee intends to make a decision which one is lying and seek action against him in the courts.

The 43-year-old Hiss was sworn in as the first witness immediately after Thomas' statement. He then publicly admitted for the first time that he once had known Chambers, but said it was under the name of George Croesley.

At previous hearings, Chambers had accused Hiss of being a member of a Red underground in Washington in the 1930s. Hiss has denied it. Hiss also once testified publicly that he never knew Chambers. But since then, Hiss has told the committee in a closed door session that he did know Chambers under the name of Croesley.

With Hiss under oath, Robert E. Stripling, chief investigator for the committee, turned to Chambers, who was sitting behind one of the press tables.

Identifies Chambers

"Mr. Chambers, will you stand up?" Stripling said.

Turning back to Hiss, the investigator inquired:

"Mr. Hiss, have you ever seen this individual who is standing?"

"I have sir," Hiss answered.

Hiss said he knew Chambers as George Croesley in the winter of 1934 or 1935. He said he last saw Chambers in 1935. A moment later, Chambers said he last saw Hiss in 1938.

A dozen newsreel and television cameras ground away as the two men entered the big room for the dramatic show-down at 10:35 a. m. (EDT).

Long before that time, the room had filled with spectators, and newsmen. Police kept an overflow crowd waiting outside.

Littlestown

PLAYGROUND TO CLOSE FRIDAY WITH PROGRAM

Eleven boys and girls registered for the tricycle races and 28 boys and girls for the bicycle races Tuesday afternoon as part of the program of the Littlestown playground activities. The obstacle and trick races were held on the playground and the other races on Maple avenue, which was closed to traffic from 2 to 4 p. m., under the supervision of Chief of Police Leon Gage. Each person who registered received a gold ribbon; blue ribbons were awarded for the first prizes and red ribbons for the second prizes. Clayton L. Evans, supervisor, was in charge of the contests and the Rev. Frank E. Reynolds and Harry Streig served as the judges. A large number of mothers and fathers were present to witness the contests.

The winners were as follows: best decorated tricycles, first prize, Robert Gage; second prize, James Evans; girls, Jacqueline Morelock. Best decorated bicycle, girls, first, Darla Lemmon; second, Barbara Jeffries and Shirley Renner. The youngest entrants were Larry Snyder and Donald Jones, both four years of age.

Tricycle races, boys (ages 4, 5 and 6) first, Richard Mackley; second, Eddie Leister; boys over six, first, Bobbie Nester; second, Paul Snyder.

Trick riding with tricycles: under six, first, James Evans; second, Larry (Please turn to Page 8)

PRICE THREE CENTS

AUGUST COURT NEAR END; TWO ARE ACQUITTED

The August term of court — with the exception of imposition of sentences Saturday — seemed scheduled to end this afternoon, or at the latest, Thursday morning.

Only one case remained on the docket to follow the one being heard this morning and early afternoon. The jury for the last case, a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor against Alf Thomas, Gettysburg R. D., was drawn Tuesday evening and the remainder of the jurors were excused at that time. The jury in the Thomas case will begin hearing that case this afternoon.

Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, after an hour's deliberation, a jury in the cases of Vernon Baker and Charles L. Baker, both of Gettysburg R. 1, acquitted the Bakers of the charges against them and placed half the costs on the Bakers and half on the prosecutor, Pfc. Howard J. Mackert of the state police.

Assault Case Up

Vernon Baker was charged with operating a motor vehicle while under the influence and resisting arrest. His father, Charles Baker, was charged with resisting arrest and assault and battery. Court attendants recalled that the Bakers had been scheduled to plead guilty to charges of assault and battery and resisting arrest before Justice John H. Baehore at a preliminary hearing when the prosecutor laid an additional charge of drunken driving against Vernon Baker. The jury action completely reversed the entire matter. Vernon Baker pleaded guilty to the driving under the influence charge before the trial started and the jury found the Bakers not guilty of the other charges.

Testimony on a charge of assault brought against Lewis Mack, Jr., Chester, S. C., began Tuesday afternoon and continued today. The jury hearing the case includes Samuel Renner, Littlestown; Paul S. Brough, York Springs R. D.; Dale Crum, Benderville; C. R. Weaver, Gardners; Mrs. Bess Mackley, Gettysburg; Warren Baugher, New Oxford R. D.; Raymond Fissel, East Berlin; Richard Keith, Littlestown R. D.; Herbert W. Miller, Biglerville R. D.; C. J. Wilson, Gettysburg; Herbert Myers, East Berlin, and Mrs. Betty Gifford, Gettysburg.

Mack is represented by Attorney Richard A. Brown, of Gettysburg and Attorney Earl Handler, of Harrisburg. The counsel was retained for him by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. A representative of that association, the Rev. F. D. Gholston, Harrisburg, a member of the state board, and president of the local branch, is also present for the trial of the young carnival worker.

The jury drawn for the Alf Thomas case includes Ray A. Addlesberger, Aspers R. D.; Edwin L. Harget, Littlestown R. D.; Raymond L. Spahr, East Berlin R. D.; John Fox, Gettysburg; Francis X. Stevens, Gettysburg R. D.; Harold W. Sparver, Littlestown; Sterling Repp, New Oxford R. D.; Mrs. Laura Freed, New Oxford; Herbert Hemler, Hanover R. D.; Mrs. John Sanders, Gettysburg; L. U. Collins, Gettysburg R. D. and Ricard Smyser, East Berlin.

ADD FEATURES TO "PLAY DAY"

Fly and plug casting contests for fishermen, a demonstration in casting, to be given by Tom Norris, state forester at Caledonia park, and a flower show, are included in the program of the Gettysburg Recreation association's "Play Day" to be held Thursday at the high school playground.

The contests for fishermen are open to anyone by just showing up at the playground equipped with the necessary paraphernalia. They will be held starting at 6:30 o'clock. There will be two contests in each division, with recognition awards for the best distance and the greatest accuracy in both fly and plug casting.

The flower show is scheduled for 7 o'clock, and is intended as a "back yard" display by amateurs. There will be divisions for both adults and children.

Awards will be made in each class for the best arrangement, largest flower, most colorful flower and the most perfect flower. The judges will include Mrs. Elmer Warren and Miss N. Louise Ramer. A third judge has not been chosen.

All entries should be in unbreakable containers, and must be made by 6:30 o'clock. Flowers should not be commercial, nor arranged by a professional. Cactus plants will be judged separately.

Weather Forecast

Fair tonight and Thursday. Quite warm Thursday.

Mrs. Glenn Bream Wins Golf Honors

The weekly women's kickers handicap was won by Mrs. Glenn L. Bream on the Gettysburg Country club golf course Tuesday with a net score of 77. Mrs. Samuel Reed took second prize with a score of 80.

The prize for the least number of putts for 18 holes was won by Mrs. George Bender with 32 putts. First prize for the putting green contest went to Miss Mary Blheimer and Mrs. Robert Kenworthy and Mrs. Bream tied for second place. Mrs. Kenworthy won the playoff.

Mrs. Charles Jacobs won the special prize.

SISTERS BRIDES IN CEREMONIES AT ELIAS CHURCH

Two sisters became brides at single ring wedding ceremonies performed Saturday evening in Emmitsburg by the Rev. Philip Bower, pastor of Elias Lutheran church.

At 7:30 o'clock Miss Ethel L. Crum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Crum, Biglerville R. 2, became the bride of Bernard J. Kuhn, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kuhn, Gettysburg R. 5.

The bride wore a blue street-length dress with white accessories and a corsage of red and white rosebuds.

Mr. Kuhn is employed by the Asplundh Tree company. He served in the army 22 months, 15 of which were in Japan.

At Wedding Dinner

A wedding dinner was served at the bride's home Sunday where the couple will reside for the present. Immediately following the first ceremony Miss Mae J. Crum was united in marriage to Charles G. Brawner, son of Mrs. Mary Brawner, Emmitsburg R. 1.

The bride wore a street-length dress with white accessories and a corsage of red and white rosebuds. The bridegroom served in the army for 36 months, 22 of which were spent overseas.

The couple also attended the wedding dinner at the Crum home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Brawner will reside in Emmitsburg.

MERCURY HITS 93 AT 1:30 P. M.

The official temperature in Gettysburg climbed into the nineties this afternoon for the first time this month and at 1:30 p. m. registered a sultry 93 degrees.

Yesterday's reading of 88 degrees was the highest so far this month and the 93-degree reading is the hottest taken here since a 94 degrees was registered on July 5.

A heat wave moving east over the state today brought forecasts of the hottest weather of the year for western Pennsylvania with eastern points scheduled to suffer the same tomorrow, the Associated Press said.

The weatherman predicted the mercury would climb to 98 by mid-afternoon in the Pittsburgh area. Previously, the warmest weather of the year was recorded there July 4 when the thermometer hit 93.

The thermometer is also expected to mark the hottest August 25th on record in that city. Previous record for that day in Pittsburgh was 94 degrees in 1903.

However the temperature is not forecast to exceed the city's all-time high of 103. The mercury rose to that historic height July 10, 1881, and again on Aug. 6, 1918.

Two Cars Collide; Occupants Escape

Two automobiles were damaged, but no one injured, at 6:15 o'clock Tuesday night a mile and a half southwest of New Oxford, at the intersection of the highway running south from the Lincoln highway at Bonneville, and the Mill road, state police reported.

A car driven by Henry Hoffnagle, New Oxford R. D., was proceeding south when the car of O. A. Zeigler, New Oxford R. D., drove out of the Mill road in front of the Hoffnagle car, police said. Damage to Hoffnagle's car was estimated at $400 and to the Zeigler car at $175. The investigation is being continued.

Local Man Rescued From Capsized Boat

Sydney J. Poppay, manager of the Majestic theatre, had a narrow escape from drowning while on vacation with his family in New Jersey.

While boating with a friend, Dalton Schaeffer, Dallastown, the boat capsized and Mr. Poppay's friend swam to shore where he secured help, returning to the capsized boat where Mr. Poppay was rescued. Mr. Poppay clung to the craft about five hours before being rescued.

MORE WORKERS NEEDED TO HELP PICK PEACHES

Between 125 to 225 additional workers are needed to harvest Adams county's peach crop, the local office of the Pennsylvania State Employment Service announced today.

With the main harvest of peaches scheduled to start in most orchards Monday, the PSES office, which has already supplied more than 100 workers, was making every effort to fill the orders for additional workers for the two or three weeks during which the main crop will be harvested.

And the job is complicated by the fact that several unknowns are contained in the estimate of worker-needs. If the demand for fresh peaches stays as it has—with truckers driving to the orchards to purchase peaches by the hundreds of bushels then the needed number of workers will remain around the 125 mark. If on the other hand the late peaches move slowly and have to be placed in storage then the 225 figure will be the goal.

As usual in the county the demand for workers for fruit harvest is appearing at the time of the usual peak demand in tomatoes. But muggy weather had been retarding the tomatoes, it was reported, and demand for labor there has been lessened, thus bettering the labor situation to (Please turn to Page 7)

MRS. RAUSHER DIES SUDDENLY

Mrs. Bessie L. Rausher, 62, wife of Clarence J. Rausher, Guernsey, died Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Warner hospital from a cerebral hemorrhage. She was admitted to the hospital shortly after noon following the attack suffered at her home.

Mrs. Rausher was born in York county, a daughter of the late Walter C. and Margaret E. (Kunkle) Snyder. She was a life-long member of Bender's Lutheran church where she was the church organist for many years.

Surviving are her husband, to whom she was married 40 years; one daughter, Mrs. Glenn Crist, at home; two grandchildren, and eight brothers and sisters, John Snyder, Chambersburg; Mrs. Charles Thomas, Chares Snyder, Earl Snyder, Elmer Snyder and Mrs. Edward Eiker, all of Gettysburg R. D.; Mrs. Dewey Wolff, Table Rock, and Mrs. Roger Wehler, Littlestown.

Funeral services Friday at 2 p. m. from the Lutheran church (Bender's) conducted by the Rev. H. W. Sternat. Interment in the church cemetery. Friends may call at the Bender funeral home Thursday evening and at the church Friday afternoon from 1 o'clock until the time of the services.

Two Are Fined For Improper Passing

Francis A. Seltzer, Baltimore, paid a fine of $10 and costs to Justice of the Peace Roy Coulson, Dillsburg, on a charge of making an improper pass, state police of the Gettysburg sub-station, who filed the charge, said today.

L. Paul Brubaker, Reading, was fined $10 and costs by Justice of the Peace Roy Martin, Biglerville, for also making an improper pass.

Dr. Robert Fortenbaugh's New Book, "Nine Capitals Of U.S." Published In Deluxe Edition

"The Nine Capitals of the United States" is the title of a new book by Dr. Robert Fortenbaugh, who is completing 25 years as Adeline Sager professor of history at Gettysburg college. His book has been published in a deluxe edition and distributed by the Maple Press company of York as its sixth annual "keepsake" book.

The publishers describe the book as an account of the significant history related to the early years of the nation's independence. "These were years of uncertainty and perplexity; no one could be sure that the New Nation, founded on new principles, would survive," says the introduction. "Even the seat of government," it continues, "was unsettled until, with the adoption of a Constitution for a federal union, governmental organization was finally completed and a decision was made to locate and establish permanently a national capital."

"True Patriotism"

Dr. Fortenbaugh is the author of several books and numerous articles in periodical publications on subjects related to the history of the United States. He believes that one effective means of awakening and confirming "true patriotism" is through better understanding of national history.

Dr. Fortenbaugh's book traces the events leading up to the revolution, and deals with the places at which the Continental Congress, and for a shorter period, the Congress of the United States, held formal sessions until a permanent "capital" was fully established for the national government which had its practical beginning in the "First Continental Congress."

The story extends from Carpenter's hall, Philadelphia, to the national capital, and from September 5, 1774, to November 17, 1800.

Threatened by British

"The meeting-place was the hall of the Carpenters' company of Philadelphia," says Dr. Fortenbaugh, "founded in 1724, and composed of master builders who were real artists and took a genuine creative interest in their work. . . . Philadelphia had been chosen as the meeting-place both because of its central location . . . and because of its size and importance." The second Continental Congress met in the State House in Philadelphia.

"The Isle Of Que" Is Released Today

Elsie Singmaster's latest book, "The Isle of Que," was released by the publishers, Longmans, Green and company, today and autographed copies went into circulation at the Adams County Free Library. The new book also is on sale at The Bookmart.

Dedicated to "Nellie Rupley Bergstresser and all her children," the book, intended specially for youthful readers, has been illustrated by Elmer Hader.

The county library said the book is expected to be in greatest demand by boys and girls of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades.

GENERAL WILL DEDICATE NEW FAIR BUILDING

Brigadier General Edward McGaw, commanding officer at the Carlisle Barracks, will be the speaker Sunday afternoon, September 5, at the services dedicating the new auditorium at the South Mountain Fair grounds as a memorial to the World War II dead.

Judge W. C. Sheely, chairman of the committee in charge of the program, said that color guards from various veterans organizations in the county have been promised to take part in the ceremony which will be open to the general public.

The dedicatory exercises will be held at 3 o'clock on a Sunday afternoon to permit the widest possible attendance at the program, it was pointed out. The auditorium is probably the first building in the county to be dedicated as a memorial to the countians who lost their lives in World War II.

Further details of the program being arranged for the dedicatory exercises will be announced in the near future upon their completion. Workmen engaged in the construction of the concrete block and steel auditorium which will seat 1,500 said today that they believe the structure will be completed in time for the dedicatory exercises.

As with other buildings on the fair grounds, the auditorium will be available not only for the fair but for all activities of county organizations and individuals.

Will Re-dedicate Church On Sunday

A re-dedication service of the Upper Meridian Lutheran church will be held Sunday at Idaville. The Sunday school service will be held at 10 o'clock, with Frank Sowers, superintendent, and worship service at 11 o'clock, under the direction of the pastor, the Rev. P. J. Horick.

Dr. Dwight F. Putnam, president of the Central Pennsylvania Synod of the Lutheran church, will deliver the sermon. A solo will be given by Marvin Kime and the choir will sing an anthem, with solo by Mr. Kime. The consecration service will follow the anthem.

A vesper service will be held at 8 p. m., which will include anthems by the Goodyear choir.

FILES DIVORCE ACTION

An action in divorce brought by Robert A. Crone, 25 Breckenridge street, against Sally E. (Ricard) Crone, Beartown, Franklin county, has been filed in the prothonotary's office. Desertion is charged. The couple was married June 21, 1929 at Hagerstown.

FRANKLIN OKAYS LIBRARIAN FOR TWO COUNTIES

Franklin and Adams counties, each without a librarian to operate its county library system, have entered into an agreement to jointly employ a librarian to serve both counties. Dr. R. G. Mowrey, Franklin county superintendent of schools and chairman of the Franklin County Library Board, announced Tuesday.

Meeting Monday night in Dr. Mowrey's office, the Franklin county board approved the application of Miss Anna F. Farran, of Mt. Airy, Philadelphia, for election to the two-county librarian post. A committee from the Adams county board meets in Gettysburg on September 4.

Miss Farran, an experienced school teacher and librarian, graduated from Temple university and received a Degree of Library Science from Drexel Institute. If her application is approved by the Adams county board on September 4, Miss Farran will begin her duties in the two-county area immediately.

To Divide Time

In naming a supervisor for the library systems of the two counties, Dr. Mowrey said a plan has been set up whereby Miss Farran will devote three days each week to the Franklin county library and two days a week to the Adams county library.

The Franklin county library, approved by the electorate at a special referendum last year, has not been placed in operation because of the difficulties experienced in securing a librarian. Miss Farran, if her election is subsequently approved in Gettysburg, will devote at least four days a week in Franklin county until the library there is set up and placed in operation, Chambersburg news reports state.

A bookmobile, to be operated in conjunction with the Franklin county library, has been purchased by the county board and is now ready for use. The librarian, however, will have to secure and approve a location for the county library headquarters and approve initial purchases of books and periodicals for the library.

The Adams county library, which has been in operation for over two years, has been without the services of a librarian since early in the spring when its librarian resigned to accept a state position.

"MYSTERY MAN" IDENTIFIED AS PROTHONOTARY

The sheriff's office had a busy evening Tuesday. It was called to pick up an escapee from the Blairsville State hospital and to take part in attempting to find a "mysterious" man in the court house at 9 o'clock.

Sheriff Dorsey J. Schultz and State Policeman George Ackerson met Frederick, Md., police at the Mason-Dixon line south of here on the Emmitsburg road about 9:30 o'clock to receive Joseph Banull, who escaped from the state hospital in Indiana county in July. Hospital authorities from Indiana county picked up the prisoner from the jail at 2 o'clock this morning.

While the sheriff was away, the phone at the jail rang.

"A mysterious stranger has slipped into the court house, lights are on in the judge's office, yet no one seems to be in the building. The mysterious stranger has not come out of the court house, would the sheriff please help in the search?"

Deputy Sheriff John Shealer went to the Sheriff. He found no one.

Mystery Is Solved

As the story came out today, a court house attendant saw "a short fat man" enter the court house with a key. While the attendant watched, the stranger "leered" at him through the glass in the front door. When reinforcements in the person of another court house employee appeared the sheriff was called and the search began.

Today the "mysterious stranger" was identified as Prothonotary Arthur H. Shields, who entered his office to get some stamps, and left almost immediately.

Mr. Shields could even explain the "leering." He said he looked out the window in the door as he searched for his key. He then left while the court house attendant, with his back turned, was talking to a woman, who turned out to be the other court house employee who participated in the search.

As to the light in the judge's office, Mr. Shields said the court house was "dark as a tomb" when he came in and went out. The attendant and another witness say the light was on. Deputy Shealer says "the light was out when I got there."

LATE TOMATO BLIGHT NEEDS MORE SPRAYING

"Late tomato blight is spreading rapidly and demands special attention," County Farm Agent M. T. Hartman warned today in Letter No. 4 on tomato spraying suggestions.

"Weather conditions are extremely favorable for the development and spread of late blight," he said. "It is threatening the tomato crop and unless we can get protection with frequent and thorough sprays the crop may be lost."

According to Mr. Hartman, more frequent sprays will be necessary to check and control the blight. The use of a sprayer is suggested during the critical period.

Suggests Spray Materials

The following spray materials are suggested in Mr. Hartman's letter: Bordeaux 8-4-100, eight pounds of bluestone and four pounds of fresh spray grade hydrated lime to 100 gallons, or a fixed copper spray, two pounds of actual or metallic copper in 100 gallons of spray, or a seven per cent metallic copper dust.

"Dusts are not as effective as sprays in preventing late blight, however," Mr. Hartman said.

Where blight is heavy, spraying or dusting should be done every three to six days until the blight is checked, the latter said. With no blight or only a light trace, spraying or dusting can be done at seven to ten-day intervals.

Entire Fields Lost

Harrisburg, Aug. 25 (AP)—Entire tomato fields are being laid waste by late blight in southern Pennsylvania, the state Agriculture department reported.

The department said that yields are poor and blight is now general over the entire southern half of the state. It added however that losses may not be as heavy as two years ago when the disease came unexpectedly.

Excessive rains and high humidity have favored the spread of blight, the agency said.

Turning to other phases of the farm scene, the report continued: "Blight in potatoes is reported in fair condition due to frequent sprayings. Some yields of 400 and more bushels of early cobbles per acre are reported from southeastern counties."

Hospital Report

Bernard Sprankle, 39, Fairfield R. 2, is a patient at the Warner hospital as the result of severe contusions of his right leg received when a bucket from a steam shovel fell on his leg.

Other admissions include James McCauslin, York Springs; Archibald Lambert, Gettysburg R. 3; Mrs. Irvin Fleckinger, Westminster R. 1, and Gerald Daley, Littlestown. Those discharged were Mrs. Samuel Witter, New Oxford R. 1; Mrs. Fred Sheely, Littlestown; Mrs. Clarence Eyer, Gettysburg R. 1; Mrs. Albert Bell, Taneytown; Mrs. William Vardell, Gettysburg R. 5; Mrs. Cecil Green and infant daughter, Sandra Marlene, Taneytown R. 2; Mrs. James Toner and infant son, Samuel James, Gardners R. 2; Helen Ford, New Oxford R. 2, and William Wolford, Gardners R. 2.

Don't fail to attend public sale of 13 building lots, 100-300 feet to settle estate of late Amos H. Butt, Straban township, on premises located several miles east of Gettysburg on Lincoln highway Saturday, August 28th, 1:30 p. m. Curnal Butt, Bernetta Reynolds and Norman H. Butt.

Good Evening

A composer says music is medicine. Well, some of it is hard to take.

Two World War I veterans and a countian who served on one of Adams county's draft boards during World War II were appointed today to serve on the county's single board for the peacetime draft that begins next Monday with registrations.

The appointments, made to 54 boards throughout the state, were announced by Lt. Col. Henry M. Grose, state Selective Service director, with the approval of Governor Duff and after confirmation by President Truman.

The members of the board which will serve all of Adams county are:

Albert E. Weaver, former burgess of McSherrystown where he is engaged in the cigar box manufacturing business. He was secretary of Adams county Draft Board No. 1 with headquarters at New Oxford for more than three years in World War II.

Lawrence M. Sheads, 26 Chambersburg street, a former commander of the Albert J. Lentz post No. 202 of the American Legion here. He is an investigator for the Department of Public Instruction at Harrisburg.

W. Clayton Jester, near Biglerville, a member of the Ira Lady Legion post at Biglerville. A former county agent for 11 years in Garrett county, Md., he served for some time during World War II as chief of field operations section for Pennsylvania of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. He is a dairy farmer and is secretary of the board of directors of the Adams County Soil Conservation District.

The new appointees said they have not yet made plans for an organization meeting and local office quarters yet must be arranged.

First Job Is Registration

Today's appointments at Harrisburg completed the Selective Service boards throughout the state with the exception of Fulton county. Members of the first 120 boards were named about 10 days ago.

First job of the new board members, Gross said, will be to complete arrangements with local school authorities for the start of registration on August 30. Wherever possible schools and other public buildings will be used.

Gross at the same time emphasized that both veterans and non-veterans in the 18-through-26 age bracket are required to register "regardless of marital status."

"The registration of these men does not mean that they will all be subject to service in the armed forces," Gross stated. "For instance, a person who served honorably on active duty between September 16, 1940, and the date of this law for a period of 12 months or more, or between December 7, 1941, and September 2, 1945, for

9 SOLDIERS DIE WHEN PLANES CRASH IN AIR

Newton, N. J., Aug. 25 (AP)—Six U. S. Air Force enlisted men, en route to a religious conference, and three crew members of a C-47 transport were killed yesterday after the big plane swooped out of a cloud bank and collided with a B-25.

The disabled C-47 plummeted to the ground near this northwest New Jersey community, crashed and burned. The B-25, a wing-tip sheared and its three-man crew unaware of the disaster, returned safely to its Stewart Field, N. Y., airbase.

Crewmen of the B-25 said they had been cruising at an altitude of about 7,000 feet when the transport zoomed out of a cloud. They reported a "not too severe jolt."

Scattered Wreckage
Eyewitnesses said the C-47, in apparent trouble, flew over the farmland area at about 400 to 500 feet before going into a tailspin and crashing in a "ball of smoke."

Wreckage and the charred, mangled bodies of the victims were strewn over several hundred yards.

"Pieces of the plane like silver flew in all directions," said Mrs. Elizabeth Snover who saw the crash from the porch of her home.

The plane was on its way from Bolling Field, Washington, D. C., to Danbury, Conn. Air Force officials described the six enlisted men as lay leaders of religious thought in their respective units. They were going to a religious meeting at West Redding, Connecticut.

Probe Launched
Bolling Field identified four of the six as Pfc. Fred Anderson, 18, of Duluth, Minn.; Pfc. James E. Ford, 24, De Valls Bluff, Ark.; Pfc. Grete, 20, Council Bluffs, Ia.; and Pfc. Bernard E. Mahoney, 18, of Binghamton, N. Y., whose mother is Mrs. Elizabeth Mahoney of Binghamton.

The two men picked up at Olmsted Field, Middletown, Pa., were Staff Sgt. M. Douglas, 25, son of Mrs. Irmal Douglas, of Darby, Pa., and Corp. Donald L. Raum, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Raum, of Lancaster, the air force base reported.

Douglas was an administrative clerk and worked in the orderly room at Olmsted. He also did some work for the base chaplain and was selected to represent the base at the Connecticut religious conference. Raum was an assistant to the base chaplain.

A board of inquiry already has been sent to the crash scene, Bolling Field reported.

MOTHER HELD FOR VAGRANCY

Indianapolis, Aug. 25 (AP)—Three small boys who were found tied by their necks to bed yesterday were in the Marion county Children's Guardian Home today and their 22-year old mother was in jail on a vagrancy charge.

Police Sgt. Fred Stevens said the boys, John Hawk, 6, and his brothers, James, 4, and Sammy, 2, were found by a visiting welfare nurse yesterday.

Stevens said the boys' mother, Mrs. Virginia Hawk, and Nathaniel Green, 42, were arrested on vagrancy charges when they returned home late yesterday. Green's mother, Mrs. Arvenie Green, 68, owns the home in which Mrs. Hawk and her children were living.

Stevens said the boys were clad only in dirty shorts and their bodies were covered with sores and bites. He said Mrs. Green told him they were tied "some time last week because they disobeyed and got into everything."

Stevens quoted Mrs. Hawk, who is divorced from the boys' father, as saying, "I've asked the welfare time and again to find foster homes for the kids."

She is employed as a bus girl in a downtown restaurant.

B29 HITS PARKED PLANE; 16 DIE

Honolulu, Aug. 25 (AP)—Sixteen persons were killed last night and four were injured critically when an Okinawa bound superfortress crashed into a parked plane at Hickam field.

The four were rushed to Tripler Army general hospital.

The plane, apparently attempting a forced landing because of engine trouble, struck a parked C-47 transport.

The B-29, which had taken off from Barbers Point, had been instructed to land at the Honolulu Municipal airport adjacent to Hickam field, the Pacific air command said. The craft had reported trouble.

As the B-29 came down it apparently struck the tail of the parked C-47 before its own wheels touched the ground, witnesses reported.

Protect Livestock—Pasture areas infested with water hemlock and poison hemlock should be fenced off to protect livestock from being poisoned, warns J. B. R. Dickey, Penn State extension agronomist. Snakeroot and bracken fern also will poison livestock.

N. Y. MILK PRICE UP

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 25 (AP)—Western New York dairymen will receive an additional 40 cents a hundredweight for the class 1 fluid milk they market during the next four months. The increase is expected to add one cent a quart to the current 22-cent price of milk delivered to western New York homes.

The State Department of Agriculture announced yesterday it had approved the boost of from $5.80 a hundredweight (about 47 quarts) to $6.20 for the remainder of the year in the Buffalo and Rochester marketing area.

Feed Sows Well—If fall litters are to be strong and well-developed, the brood sows must be fed well during the last two months before farrowing. L. C. RUSSIA CLOSING 2 CONSULATES

Washington, Aug. 25 (AP)—A Soviet-ordered halt to all consular dealings between the United States and Russia wrote an apparent end today to the case of the refugee school teachers.

The Kremlin's decision to close its diplomatic outposts in New York and San Francisco and to deny this country similar facilities in Vladivostok and Leningrad came suddenly but not unexpectedly.

It was relayed to the State Department last night in a note rejecting United States protests against foreign "police power" activities involving Mrs. Oksana S. Kasenkina.

Mrs. Kasenkina is the 52-year-old Russian school teacher who leaped from a third-story window of the New York consulate after her "rescue" from a White Russian retreat. The frantic efforts of Soviet Consul General Jacob Lomakin to send her home, along with Teacher Mikhail I. Samarin and his family, led to a caustic exchange of diplomatic notes.

This exchange was climaxed on the American side last week by a decision to expel Lomakin.

Russia called that bet last night and raised. Not only will Lomakin be going home Saturday, but the two consulates the Soviets have maintained in this country will be shut down immediately.

A MAN IN THE HOUSE

By Florence Stuart

Chapter 23
Jane said: "What's happening to me now? I wish you'd tell me. I've been trying to figure it out."

"You're reaching out for one last fling at the youth you gave up when you got married. It's your who's sort of confused, honey. You don't know what to make of it and you're telling yourself it's your husband's fault. I'll grant you, some guys in his position would sit up and do jealous tricks—" Ted's grin came on—"with a snake in the grass like me around the house. But he isn't the type."

"Look, honey, I'm no psychiatrist. I'm no expert in analyzing people. All I get is impressions. But well, I have a sneaking idea a fellow like him would figure it was a sign of—well, an inferiority complex or something like that to put on an outraged husband act."

"Oh, nuts," Jane said. "Look, Ted, you know as well as I do, if a man is jealous he's the jealous. And being a brainy professor doesn't make any difference."

"Well, maybe I'm not very good at explaining what I mean," Ted said. "Maybe I don't even know what I mean. But I know this much and you can write it down in your little book. That guy loves you, honey. If that's all you've got to worry you—" They stared at each other, and suddenly they both began to laugh.

"You're a funny one," Jane said. "You brought me out here to tell me you were moving out of our house because you were in love with my husband's wife. And you end by trying to prove to me that my husband really loves me."

"Yeah," Ted said. "Funny, isn't it?"

"What do you want?" Jane asked him.

"I don't know. That's the trouble. I'm restless. The war made me that way. It unfitted me for taking a root anywhere. I don't want to take on responsibilities. I don't want to be tied. It was a mistake when I came here. I don't want a college education. Not really. I'm not getting anything out of it that means anything. So I'm quitting."

"Quitting school?"

"Yes."

"Where will you go? What will you do?"

"I don't know. Don't care very much. I just want to move on somewhere. See new places. Do something I've never done before. Maybe I'll take a crack at one of the lumber camps. Or mining. Something outdoors. I don't want to be cooped up. Don't want to be tied, not even to a woman I love."

"Maybe you wouldn't feel tied if you loved the woman enough," Jane said softly.

"Yes, I would. Eventually I would," He said soberly: "Honey, don't you

CHURCH HEARS WORLD VIEWS

Amsterdam, The Netherlands, Aug. 25 (AP)—The east-west conflict has brought the World Council of Churches to its feet. What are the churches going to do about it?

Delegates have listened for three days to introductory speeches concluding the first part of this church assembly. They have heard agreement on the futility of war and the need for peace. Conflicting east and west views have been voiced.

Today they got down to brass tacks in perhaps the most vigorous and heated discussions of the assembly to see what steps the churches can take to ease a world situation which has boiled up to crisis at Berlin.

Some of the world's leading churchmen go behind closed doors to work out a composite, if not a unified, view as the basis for a significant church pronouncement on east-west differences.

For practical work of the assembly, the delegates have been divided into four main groups concerned with the church's "message to major problems in the contemporary world." The group concerned with "the church and international disorder" has emerged as the most important of these.

Residents Warned Of Carbon Dioxide

Philadelphia, Aug. 25 (AP)—Police and Health department workers went from door to door in a four block area of South Philadelphia last night, warning 700 residents of an unusual amount of carbon dioxide in the neighborhood.

Herbert M. Packer, chief of the city's division of housing and sanitation, said he believed the fumes were coming from sewers in the vicinity of 4th and Ritner streets.

Packer warned all residents of the area to be on the alert for the gas particularly in basements and cellars.

Some of those in the affected area left their homes to spend the night with friends or relatives in other sections of the city.

Sudden minute changes in the length of a day have been observed. For instance, it increased .004 of a second in 1897 and decreased by a like amount in 1918.

Upper Communities

Mr. and Mrs. W. Benton Fidler had as guests Sunday at their home near Bendersville Mrs. Fidler's granddaughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Jones, Lindy Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Herbert, all of Washington, D. C.

Miss Julia Yost, of Biglerville, has returned from a visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Yings, of Myerstown.

Mrs. John Beltz and son, Raymond Beltz, have returned to their home in Philadelphia after a visit with Mrs. Beltz's sister, Mrs. Joseph Stubbs, of Quaker Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Walton, Jr., and their son, Richard, will arrive this evening for a visit with Mr. Walton's mother, Mrs. Richard C. Walton, of Biglerville.

Jackie Barnhart, of Greencastle, is visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Slaybaugh, of Biglerville.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boyer and daughter, Harriet, and son, Larry, of Biglerville, have returned from a visit with Mrs. Boyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Simmers, of Dayston, Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hollabaugh and Miss Mary Hollabaugh, of Biglerville, were visitors in Harrisburg Tuesday.

George Houck, who is attending the summer session at West Chester State Teachers' college, spent the week-end at his home in Biglerville.

Mrs. George Adams, Jr., of Biglerville, has returned from visits with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ranard, of Vienna, Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. George Adams, Sr., of Elsmere, and with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Hollabaugh, of Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Dearborn, who had been visiting Mrs. Dearborn's mother, Mrs. Revere Thomas, Biglerville, left today for Lawrence, Kan., where Mr. Dearborn has accepted a position as assistant professor of economics at the University of Kansas. Mr. Dearborn took graduate work at Harvard university this summer. They were accompanied as far as Leechburg, Pa., by their niece, Miss Brenda McCracken, who had been with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Rappensperger, Biglerville, this summer.

Miss Helen McDannell, Lancaster, spent the week-end with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Burgoon, Arendtsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Shillito and son, Larry, Biglerville, have returned from Chicago, Ill., where they attended the railroad fair.

Frank Strook, Perth Amboy, N. J., was a recent guest of Jack Miller, Biglerville.

Miss Letitia Hansberry, Germantown, has concluded a visit of several days with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Burgoon, Arendtsville. Miss Gwynn Burgoon accompanied Miss Hansberry home for a week's visit.

Probe Complaints Against Minister

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 25 (AP)—A federal district attorney says he will investigate Selective Service complaints that a Methodist minister had urged young men not to register for the draft.

The Rev. Ernest R. Bromley, took his stand in a sermon delivered Sunday at Grace Methodist church, Nassau, where he was guest preacher. He repeated the appeal yesterday.

U. S. District Attorney Irving Higbee said at Syracuse that he would investigate the case at the request of Brig. Gen. Ames T. Brown, state director of Selective Service.

In Washington, Selective Service officials said that any person speaking against the law might be liable to prosecution. Justice department officials declined to comment on possible applications of the law.

"Ruth" Foundation Plans Revealed

New York, Aug. 25 (AP)—Some of the funds of the Babe Ruth Foundation will be used to care for children with cancer—the disease that killed the one-time home run king. This was announced jointly yesterday by the American Cancer Society and the Foundation.

Under the plan, the Foundation—organized primarily to provide recreational facilities for children—will use part of the money donated to it to finance "improved techniques and facilities for treatment of cancer among children."

In hospitals equipped to treat children for cancer, "Babe Ruth Foundation beds" will be provided. The Cancer Society—in return—will help the Foundation raise funds.

Provide Poultry Range—Poultry extension specialists of the Pennsylvania State college say that an acre of good range will carry 500 to 600 pullets up to 22 weeks of age. From 100 to 200 turkey pouls can be carried on a like area until pasture conditions indicate a larger area to be more desirable.

BATTLESHIP TO BE RETIRED

Washington, Aug. 25 (AP)—In another week, the Mighty Mo will be this country's last battleship on active duty.

But a light aircraft carrier and eight destroyers are coming out of mothballs for a stepped-up program of anti-submarine training.

The Navy in announcing this last night said the reason is the series of revolutionary developments in underwater fighting since war's end. Thus by retiring the battleship Iowa about September 1, the Navy plans to release more men and money for the anti-sub program. The Iowa will join 13 other battlewagons laid up in the reserve fleet.

That will leave the Missouri—the vessel on which the Japanese surrender was signed—the only battleship actively afloat.

The 11,000-ton carrier Cabot will be reactivated in about a month, and the eight destroyers will begin rejoining the fleet in January.

Meanwhile, the Navy joined the air force and the Army in a public declaration of new harmony among the services. The occasion was a meeting of 300 top planning officers to hear reports on the week-end Newport, R. I., meeting of the joint chiefs of staff.

BULLETINS

is a climax to a dispute over runaway Russian school teachers, is regrettable but not a very serious matter. The American consulate in the Pacific port was so circumscribed in his activities that he was able to accomplish very little, Marshall said.

Berlin, Aug. 25 (AP)—Bavarian border authorities report that German police from the Russian zone fatally shot a German agent of the American army Monday. They said the incident occurred at Fuerth Amberg, near Coburg, a Bavarian town in the American zone. It lies across the border from Thuringia, in the Russian zone.

Cairo, Aug. 25 (AP)—The commander of Arab Legion forces in Jerusalem has notified the United Nations his army will not brook further alleged violations of the truce by the Jews. The commander, Lt. Col. Abdulla Tel, sent a memorandum to U.N. observers yesterday, saying if the Jews continue their present course, the Arab Legion will repel them.

New Oxford's fourth place aspirations were given a jolt when Orrianna gained a 3-2 victory at tanna.

In the first inning New Oxford obed a run when Hoffman was on a sacrifice and tallied on Smith's single. Orrianna knotted the score in the fifth on a single by R. Dear-ruff, a sacrifice, fielder's choice and squeeze bunt by J. Wentzel.

New Oxford took the lead with a n in the sixth on a double by offman. Smith's sacrifice and sin-ces by Staub and Beamer. Again ritanna tied the count with a run in its half. A double by Singley, an error and a fielder's choice permitted the tally.

Successful doubles by Herring and Deardorff with none out in the venth clinched the game for the ague-leaders in the last of the venth.

Littlestown clinched third place the standing by blanking Emmitsburg 7-0 in a contest played at littlestown.

Weaver, Littlestown, hurled a onester. Topper's single being the ly blow off his delivery.

Hull, Strine and W. Mehring each scored two hits for the victors hile Kress pounded out a homerun.

league will get underway next Sunday afternoon as the result of postponed games which were played
Tuesday evening.

Cashtown will be host to Greenmount next Sunday at Cashtown while Heidersburg will play the Conewago VFW outfit at Arendts-ville. Each series will be the best of three with the winners meeting in a title three-game series.

In games played Tuesday evening Cashtown rallied for two runs in the sixth inning to blank Brushtown on the latter's field 2-0. D. Bucher, Cashtown hurler, gave up but two hits and fanned seven batsmen.

The battle for third place was settled when Bonneauville hammered two Greenmount hurlers for a 9-3 triumph at Bonneauville. Hawn and Chrismer formed the winning battery.

VERN STEVENS LEADS RED SOX INTO LOOP LEAD

By JOE REICHLER

(AP Sports Writer)

Vern (Little Slug) Stephens, pounding his way through his greatest year in the big time, is making a serious bid for the coveted most valuable player award as he strives to spark the Boston Red Sox to an American league pennant.

The timely hitting shortstop sent the Sox back into first place last night when he poled a dramatic ninth-inning home run with one mate aboard to give Boston a thrilling 9-8 victory over the Cleveland Indians.

The Boston Braves increased their first-place hold to three and a half games over runnerup St. Louis, defeating the Cardinals at St. Louis, 9-3. The victory, Boston's fourth in a row, also put the Braves four games ahead of the third-place
Brooklyn Dodgers, who were whipped by the Pirates, 9-1, in Pittsburgh.

Musial Gets 31st
Johnny Sain had an easy time winning his 16th game as the Braves pounded Harry Breen and three relievers for 18 hits. The Cards went ahead 2-1 in the first inning on Stan Musial's 31st home run with one on. The Braves, however, came back with three runs in the fourth, and were never headed.

Ralph Kiner walked his 33rd home run and Wally Westlake his 13th to help the Pirates subdue the Dodgers. Jackie Robinson, Dodger second baseman, was banished from the game for the first time in his major league career for heckling
Empire Butch Henline. Catcher
Bruce Edwards and Coach Clyde
Sukeforth also were ejected.

The New York Giants remained in a virtual fourth-place tie with Pittsburgh, six games off the pace, by defeating the last-place Cubs in Chicago, 7-4. Sid Gordon led a 12-hit assault on five pitchers with a double and two singles.

Yankees Nosed Out
The third-place New York Yankees failed to better their two-game deficit in the American league when they were nosed out by the cellar-dwelling Chicago White Sox, 6-5, at the Yankee Stadium. The Yankees staged a belated ninth-inning rally, scoring twice, but fell one short when Charlie Keller popped out, leaving Tommy Henrich stranded on second.

The Detroit Tigers drove Lou Brissie from the mound with a sixrun attack in the third inning and went on to defeat the skidding Athletics, 7-4, in Philadelphia.

The St. Louis Browns checked a ninth-inning rally after Washington scored four runs and beat the Senators, 6-5, in the Capitol City.
Cincinnati and the Philadelphia
Phillies were not scheduled.

Miss Wilda Holtzworth Weds

Glenn Killinger: In the presence of immediate families and friends, Miss Wilda Holtzworth, North Washington street, and William Glenn Killinger, Harrisburg, member of Walter Camp's All-American football team, professional baseball player and all-around athlete, were married at St. James Lutheran church this morning at 10 o'clock.

The ring ceremony of the Lutheran church was performed by the Rev. Dr. D. M. Moser.

Miss Holtzworth had been employed for fourteen months as dietitian at the Carlisle hospital. While in Carlisle she met Mr. Killinger, who was then football coach at Dickinson college.

Lutherans in Convention: The first world convention of Lutherans at Eisenach, Germany, opened Sunday morning when 150 delegates, representing twenty nations, assembled for the inaugural service in old St. George's church, where Martin Luther preached in 1521.

Dr. A. R. Wentz, of Gettysburg, is one of the delegates at the convention.

Rev. Dr. Hanson Will Come Here: Rev. Henry W. A. Hanson, the new president of Gettysburg college, will come to Gettysburg from Harrisburg Tuesday, August 28, to take up his duties here and will bring his family here as soon as the residence on the campus is ready for occupancy.

Wed on Sunday: A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Boyer, near Biglerville, on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock when their daughter, Miss Nancy Boyer, was united in marriage to Daniel D. Shenk, of Denbigh, Virginia. The ceremony was performed by Bishop N. L. Landis, of Lancaster.

Coast to Coast Mail to Start: New York, Aug. 21—Uncle Sam today will make his most audacious attempt at delivering trans-continental mail on record time.

From New York a plane will wing its way westward, bound for San Francisco. From San Francisco a machine will speed eastward for New York.

For five days the country will have this aerial express mail service. After that test, Uncle Sam will decide whether daily transcontinental flights are to become mere routine and mailplane service from Atlantic to Pacific made permanent.

Fancy Peaches $2 a Bushel: Extra fancy Elberta peaches sold as high as $2 a bushel on curb market Thursday morning. Other varieties of peaches could be purchased from 75 cents a bushel up. Drop apples sold at 50 cents a bushel, with the early picked varieties from 75 cents to $1.50 a bushel.

Bigger Girl Is Contest Winner: Miss Mildred Roth, Biglerville, a student at the Biglerville High School, won the state Women's Christian Temperance Union essay contest in the Freshman-Sophomore division and was presented with a prize of $10 at the Biglerville-Arendtsville chautauqua at Biglerville Saturday.

County Couple Wed at Seashore: Announcement has been made of the wedding at Atlantic City, New Jersey, on Sunday, August 12, of Miss Anne Elizabeth MacGinnis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. MacGinnis, of Littlestown, and Charles McCreary Wible, son of Mr. and Mrs. David B. Wible, of near Gettysburg.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Henry Merle Mellon in the First Presbyterian church of Atlantic City. The attendants were Miss Francis M. Wible and G. Leonard MacGinnis.

Local Golfers Compete: D. J. Forney, Harvey Lewis, William Himes, Grover C. Myers and S. F. Lehman, all members of the Quaker Valley Country Club golf team, on Thursday participated in the invitation

Today's Talk

THE PRIDE OF COUNTRY

Never can I be too grateful for having been born in a free, democratic country. Its blessings are legion. Its benefits are far beyond any country in the world. America — "the land of the free and the home of the brave." Truly that, and linked to it, as a good neighbor, is Canada, enjoying the same blessings.

This year celebrates one hundred years of peace and good will between these two democracies. What a record! May their flags ever wave together, and their hearts ever warm with friendliness! I feel at home in both countries.

But here is a curious thing — there are people in both countries who are ever boring in the dark, and in silence, to undermine these countries that have even illustrated to them how happy a people can be under democratic rule. Some are citizens but for an evil purpose, and others are foreigners, from countries that have never known such blessings and happiness. Then why do they bore, steal, lie, and seek to sabotage what does not belong to them? If these foreign spies so love their own form of government, why don't they stay at home with it and enjoy it?

Also, if people over here think so much of a foreign form of government, why don't they give up the country of their birth and go to the one that suits them, and which they praise so gleefully and freely? These are free lands in this Western World — freer than any on the face of the globe, outside that of England, and they are going to remain just that, no matter how many thieves break in and seek to steal and destroy.

Yes, we live in a free land, but it isn't free to foreign criminals! Why do these foreign agents and spies give up their time and lives to work among happy people, while their own people starve and suffer? What is their pride of country worth?

I am an American. I love my country, and I love Canada, where, for years, I have spent my summer vacations and learned about the genuineness and hospitality of these good neighbors. This pride of country is inborn, and it should forever be held sacred. There isn't an inch of space that should harbor, even for a day, anyone seeking to destroy this pride, its government, or its great institutions.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "We Live on Loans."

Just Folks

WEAKNESS
I try to be strong and I try to be true,
And what is my duty I'm eager to do,
But when somebody says: "They are biting today!"
Resistance breaks down and I'm up and away.

This lesson my father once bade me to learn:
"To others be kind, but to self, son, be stern."
When there's work to be done, never put it away.
But I'm sure no one told him: "They're biting today!"

He counseled me often: "Be faithful to work.
Be firm with yourself when you're tempted to shirk.
Through the years you'll meet many who'll beg you to play."
Now here's one of them saying: "They're biting today!"

Dear Dad, did you know that you fathered a son
So weak that from tasks which he ought to have done
He turned and went fishing for bass in the bay,
Because somebody told him: "They're biting today!"

Pinchot to Try to Settle Strike: (By Associated Press) Harrisburg, Aug. 25—Invitations to meet him in Harrisburg next Monday noon were sent today by Governor Pinchot to the four representatives of the anthracite miners and the four representatives of the operators' policy committee who have been taking part in the recent negotiations as the first step in his effort to adjust differences between the two factions and avert a suspension of the mines September 1.

Personal Mention: Mr. and Mrs. Edmund W. Thomas and children, Lincoln avenue, have returned from a ten-day vacation in Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Snyder and children left Friday by motor for Indiana, this State.

Mrs. William Neely and son and Lois Safford, who have been visiting Deatrick Brothers, Hunterstown, have returned to Muncie, Indiana.

Mrs. Mary E. Bender, of Carlizozo, New Mexico, is spending some time with Miss Carrie Musselman, West Middle street.

POSSIBLE COURT ACTION ON MILK

Harrisburg, Aug. 25 (AP)—Retail milk prices will be hiked 1½ cents to 22 cents a quart in the 12-county Pittsburgh marketing area, effective Sept. 1.

The increase was approved by John J. Snyder and Charles J. O'Loughlin, majority members of the state milk control commission after a turbulent price conference here yesterday. It matches a similar increase which went into effect in most of the remainder of the state, Aug. 20.

Chairman H. N. Cobb, standing firm in his insistence for a higher boost, refused to sign the order which also boosts prices for producers 40 cents a hundred pounds (46½ quarts) to $6.03 for class one milk.

Meanwhile, the new order faced the threat of court action by the City of Pittsburgh. Albert D. Brandon, assistant city solicitor, told the hearing he was under instruction from Mayor David L. Lawrence to carry the question to court if the price boost was ordered.

Brandon said Pittsburgh had "no real objection" to the increase for farmers but contended that dealers had failed to prove the need for a greater spread between wholesale and retail prices.

New Oxford

New Oxford—The Rev. Irvin Rudisill, Millersville, husband of the former Miss Mary Moul, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Moul, near here, was guest preacher on Sunday at the local Reformed church because of the annual vacation of Pastor Archie C. Rohrbaugh.

Mrs. Floyd Neff and three children, Albuquerque, N. M., have been spending some time with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Polz, near here. The Neffs left for their former home in New Mexico two years ago after living for some time in East Berlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Noel, near town, have announced the recent birth of a daughter, Victoria Ann.

Paul F. Staub, who opened a shoe repair business on Hanover street over a year ago, expects to move his shop to center square shortly.

Mr. Staub will operate in a part of the Park Hotel annex which has recently been prepared for the use of several store buildings.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Starner, near here, have returned from their recent vacation spent in northern New York and Canada.

The New Oxford Lions club fair, scheduled for the entire week, was opened Monday evening at the grounds of the local Sons of Veterans armory for the benefit of the Lions Community Betterment program. Music on the first evening was furnished by the East Berlin high school band. Other high schools whose bands are on the program for the week are Biglerville, Boiling Springs and the local high school, with the Blue and Gray band, Gettysburg, furnishing Friday's music and the William F. Myers band, Westminster, on Saturday.

Mrs. Harry W. Weaver, who has been ill for most of the summer and who underwent a major operation in July, is now able to be about.

Miss Kathleen P. Swain has returned to the home of her mother, Mrs. Bernelle Swain, from the Hanover hospital where she spent several weeks for treatment of a fracture of her leg sustained in a fall at the home of East Berlin friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynne W. Grove are spending several days on a vacation to Ocean City, N. J. Mrs. Grove is proprietor of the local gift shop which is closed during her absence.

Mrs. Amanda Flickinger has returned home after spending several days in Philadelphia visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. Arthur Donohue, who has been spending a part of the summer with her husband who has a position in that city.

The Rev. and Mrs. Elmer Drumm have left the Pines Lutheran parsonage, New Chester, which they occupied for many years, and are now making their home at Williams-town where the Rev. Mr. Drumm accepted a call this month. No successor has as yet been named for the New Chester charge.

Memolo Is Entitled To Federal Parole

Washington, Aug. 25 (AP)—John Memolo, Scranton, Pa., lawyer, is now entitled to parole from the federal penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa., under a decision handed down yesterday by District Court Justice Edward M. Curran.

Memolo is serving a three-year sentence for tax evasion. He also has been sentenced to two years on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the government.

Memolo contended he was entitled to a parole either on the grounds that he should be credited with a period between April 9, 1946, and July 26, 1947, or that District Justice James Alger Fee acted illegally in ordering he should serve the two sentences separately instead of concurrently. Justice Curran held that Memolo was not entitled to credit for the April 9, 1946-July 26, 1947 period. But he ruled that Judge Fee's order that Memolo's sentences run consecutively "was without authority in law and therefore void."

Littlestown

Littlestown — The weekly rehearsal of the Littlestown Men's chorus will be held Thursday at 9 p. m. in St. Paul's Lutheran church.

The playoff for the winners of the first and second halves of Littlestown softball will begin tonight at 6:30 o'clock on the Littlestown playground. The second game will be played Thursday night and if a third night is required, that game will be next Monday night. Redeemer's Reformed church was the winner of the first half and the Bankers team was the winner of the second half.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Helwig and daughter, Barbara, "M" street, enjoyed a week-end motor trip to Atlantic City, N. J. Upon their return home on Monday, they stopped at Wilmington, Del. to visit relatives of Mr. Helwig.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wehler and daughters, Audrey and Carolyn, Oakland, N. J., are visiting Mr. Wehler's mother, Mrs. Ralph Wehler, West King street and Mrs. Wehler's father, Charles M. Weikert and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Weikert, West King street.

On Sunday morning in St. Aloysius church, the pastor, the Rev. Fr. George A. Lavelle, baptized Harold Francis Storm, infant son of Henry F. and Lela (nee Eckenrode) Storm. Mr. and Mrs. J. Lawrence Orendorff, Emmitsburg, maternal uncle and aunt of the child were the sponsors.

Mrs. Irvin Kindig, near town, will be hostess to the monthly meeting of eral weeks for treatment of a fracture of her leg sustained in a fall at the home of East Berlin friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynne W. Grove are spending several days on a vacation to Ocean City, N. J. Mrs. Grove is proprietor of the local gift shop which is closed during her absence.

Mrs. Amanda Flickinger has returned home after spending several days in Philadelphia visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. Arthur Donohue, who has been spending a part of the summer with her husband who has a position in that city.

STEEL OUTPUT SETTING RECORD

New York, Aug. 25 (AP)—This year's steel production will be another peacetime record. The Iron Age, metalworking trade weekly said today. It reported output continuing at 95 per cent of capacity.

Despite this activity, the publication said, "some administration people are getting ready to blast at steel on the question of capacity."

Pointing out that the industry has not been able to get its rate above 95 per cent for some months, The Iron Age commented: "If the industry can not operate at the top of what capacity it has, it is idle at this time to talk of a 5 to 10 million ton increase in capacity."

It cited as reasons for inability to increase the operating rate the following: (1) Good coking coal is tight, (2) Ore is harder to get, (3) Breakdowns are more numerous, (4) pig iron supplies are short and (5) there is no real assurance that there will be enough scrap this winter to support present operating levels.

"What privately burns some steel men up," the weekly said, "is the current spectacle of Republican Senator Martin's small business committee action of forming a steel inquiry."

It reported three committee investigators last week were busy at Pittsburgh "firing questions at Carnegie-Illinois Steel sales officials and getting their eagle eyes on information that normally is considered to be the company's own business—no steel company likes to tell another one where it sells its steel, how much it sells and to what kind of customers the steel goes."

$25,000 Truck Theft Is Solved By FBI

Philadelphia, Aug. 25 (AP)—A $25,000 truck theft was solved today with the arrest of four men, the Federal Bureau of Investigation announced. The hijacking occurred August 12 when a trailer loaded with television sets, radio and other cargo was stolen from the Spector Motor Service, Inc., loading platform.

Charged with the theft yesterday at arraignment before U. S. Commissioner Ethan Allen Doty, the the Starr Bible class of St. Paul's Lutheran church on Thursday evening. Those attending are asked to meet at the home of Mrs. Arthur Bair, South Queen street at 7 o'clock so that transportation might be properly arranged. Those assisting the hostess are Mrs. Edna Fortney and Mrs. Augustus Study.

'POTATO CITY' BEING ERRECTED

Condersport, Pa., Aug. 25 (AP)—A miniature "potato city" is beginning to rise on a hilltop near here, bringing to reality a long-cherished dream of thousands of Pennsylvania potato growers.

The city, known in farming circles over the state as "Camp Potato" is still in the infant stage, but plans for its future are decidedly ambitious.

Sponsored by the Pennsylvania Cooperative Potato Growers Association, the model city is being built to encourage the potato industry in Pennsylvania.

Located atop Denton hill seven miles east of here on U. S. Route 6, the site already is nationally known for its experimental seed potato plots. The plots contain more than 30,000 varieties of seedlings and the number is growing annually.

The growers have set a preliminary building goal of $100,000 to be raised by contributions and which will be used toward erection of an educational and recreational center, as well as an airport.

Additional plans for the project will be discussed tomorrow when growers from all over the state converge here on their annual "field day" pilgrimage. A highlight of the event will be selection of the 1948 Pennsylvania potato blossom queen. Only a daughter of a potato grower is eligible to enter the contest.

four men were ordered held in bail for grand jury action.

The FBI identified the four as John McDermott, 20, and Aldo Gasparatti, 32, both employees of the Spector company, and Ernest James, 40, of Cornwells Heights, Pa., and Philip Weber, 40, of Croydon, Pa.

Recover Jewelry In Phila. Hotel
Philadelphia, Aug. 25 (AP)—A $1,500 diamond platinum ring reported lost by the wife of a Lancaster attorney was recovered yesterday at the Warwick hotel.

Mrs. Charles Miller told police the ring and a man's gold wrist band had disappeared Monday after she had placed them on a wash stand in the hotel's ladies lounge.

Hotel authorities announced yesterday the two pieces of jewelry were recovered in an incidental room after a search of many hours. They explained the jewelry apparently had been swept into a wastebasket in error.

VOTERS RETURN JOHN E. RANKIN

(By The Associated Press)
Mississippi voters are sending John E. Rankin back to Congress for his 15th term.
The veteran advocate of white supremacy easily defeated two rivals in yesterday's Democratic primary. The party nomination is as good as election in that state.
Rankin, a member of the House committee on un-American Activities and outspoken foe of Communism, told voters in his campaign that to defeat him would be "the best news that Joe Stalin ever heard."

Rankin's bid for another two years in the House was the outstanding race in congressional primary voting in three states. New York and South Carolina also picked candidates.
In New York, the state's eight members of the House who faced opposition easily won renomination. Among them was Daniel A. Reed, 72-year old Republican member of the

The races were the third major event in connection with Littlestown Playground program; the first was a doll show two weeks ago; the second was a scavenger hunt last Friday evening. This will be the last week of playground activity for this season. This afternoon, swimming was conducted for the boys at Crouse's pool and Thursday afternoon, the girls will have swimming instructions, also at the pool. Friday will be the closing day.

A fourth major event will be held in connection with the closing program, the tenth weekly dance and party for the teen-agers in the Crouse Park pavilion. The special event in connection with this dance will be several contests. Mr. Evans has announced that there will be a prize for the youngest dancer; a prize for the best team; and a jilterbug contest. The chaperons will be furnished by the Rotary Club.

Littlestown Rotary club held an outing on Tuesday evening at A. W. Schott's farm, near town, with an attendance of approximately 40. Fried chicken and corn on the cob were served by Schott.

The evening was spent playing games which included horseshoes, quarts, badminton, croquet, etc. The outing was in charge of the Fellowship and Attendance committee which included Walter F. Crouse, chairman, Charles M. Weikert, Mervin Harner and the Rev. David S. Kammerer. Four guests were in attendance, Irving Borscher, A. Lang, Laverne Harner and Robert Smith. Also present was Rev. Nevin E. Smith of the Hanover club. Dr. W. H. Marshman was received as a new member. Next week, the Student Loan fund committee, with Dr. J. R. Riden, chairman, will be in charge of the program.

British advance through New Jersey, it decided to move to Baltimore, and "Thus was begun the unhappy experience of frequently changing the location of the seat of government," says Dr. Fortenbaugh. "As the threat of possible British occupation of Pennsylvania passed away, Congress was impatient to return to Philadelphia." Baltimore ceased to be the capital February 27, 1777.

Two More Moves

"The stay of Congress in Philadelphia was soon doomed to end," writes Dr. Fortenbaugh. The British occupied Philadelphia late in September, and Congress moved to Lancaster. It convened in the court house, but the general war situation was threatening, and Congress moved again, this time to York, "to put the broad waters of the Susquehanna between the enemy and the seat of general government."

"The court house provided excellent quarters for the meeting of Congress, while the Board of Treasury had its office in the residence of Archibald McLean," says Dr. Fortenbaugh. "The board of war held its meetings in the law office of James Smith."

The first month of the Congress' long stay in York was brightened by the news of the military victories in the north, the book relates. At York
